

Following on from the University 'Out At Work' event and by popular demand, we will be showing

The Celluloid Closet

a 1995 documentary film showing how gay, lesbian, bi-and trans-sexual characters were depicted in 'motion pictures' especially those from Hollywood.

As you might imagine Doris Day features strongly, along with Julie Andrews, Quentin Crisp, Tony Curtis, Whoopi Goldberg, Armistead Maupin, and many, many more familiar faces ... 'The Celluloid Closet' is thought-provoking, funny and poignant.

Wednesday 3 November, 7pm, Jessop West SR1

We'll show the film then hope afterwards to have time to discuss its implications.

All are very welcome. Since the room is small, it would be helpful if you could let us know in advance by email if you intend to come along: n.a.hallett@sheffield.ac.uk
