

Hidden Histories at Sheffield Archives: Discovering and developing Sheffield's LGBT history

Wednesday 17th February 2010, 5.00pm-7.00pm

Centre for HIV & Sexual Health,
22 Collegiate Crescent, Sheffield, S10 2BA

A workshop by staff at Sheffield Archives investigating Sheffield's LGBT history through the ages. Learn about the 19th century lesbian marriage at Sheffield Parish Church; secret cross-dressing parties in Doncaster during the 1850s; and the radical life of Edward Carpenter and his campaign for gay rights over 100 years ago.

This is also a unique chance to see original archives dating back to the 1800s relating to LGBT history in Sheffield.

The Centre for HIV & Sexual Health would like to invite you to attend the above free seminar taking place on Wednesday the 17th February 2010. Places are limited so please book early to avoid disappointment.

If you would like to attend the seminar please reply to either :
